

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

On behalf of our board of directors, management, and staff we welcome you to the 2019 Great Northern Darwin Cup Carnival for another exuberant year of racing as the "Carnival of Colour". The Great Northern Darwin Cup Carnival brings a wealth of excitement to the Top End as we see interstate and International tourists, racing royalties and celebrities make the trek to Darwin to tick our events off their bucket lists.

We thank Carlton & United Breweries for their long standing support and welcome the Great Northern brand to the forefront of the biggest social and sporting event in the Northern Territory, now named "Great Northern Darwin Cup Carnival".

The Darwin Cup Carnival continues to boost the Darwin economy and tourism sectors, welcoming around 40,000 attendees through the month of July culminating with the Darwin Cup. We are very proud to produce such a successful event and to share Darwin on a national platform through our racing carnival. Hundreds of thousands of SKY Racing viewers will again watch the action packed Carnival on screens across the globe. With a prize purse totalling almost two-million dollars the Carnival attracts thoroughbreds from all over Australia.

In addition to our top class racing, the best of Top End racing fashion will also be on display with the crowning of the SILK Laser Clinics Fashions on the Field winner. The outright winner will go on to represent the Northern Territory at the Myer Fashions on the Field on Lexus Melbourne Cup Day at Flemington.

My sincere thanks must go to all our industry participants, loyal sponsors, patrons, staff and the NT Government both over the Carnival period and throughout the year. Their support is paramount to the success of our Cup and Darwin Racing.

The best of luck to all today as we trust you will enjoy 'Australia's greatest show on dirt' – the 2019 Great Northern Darwin Cup.

BRETT DIXON

Congratulations Paul “Dash” Denton 40 years in the saddle!

Paul Denton, better known as Dash, began his long career in the saddle with his first race ride at Cheltenham in late July, 1979. He had two rides that day, both finishing last, but he didn't have to wait long for his first winner, which came aboard Landrace at a non-TAB meeting at Berri, 238km north-east of Adelaide.

Apprenticed to Joe Hall, Dash began to have some success with city winners in South Australia, and had his one and only Group 1 ride aboard Beau Noble in the Adelaide Cup in 1981. He finished a close-up second to Just A Dash, who went on to win the Melbourne Cup later that year.

A couple of significant injuries slowed Dash's career, and then increasing weight forced him to relocate to Alice Springs, having his first ride in the Red Centre on 1 January 1983. That year he also rode the first of his eight Palmerston Sprint winners in Darwin, He Could Be, for trainer Colleen Costello.

Dash spent 10 years based in the Alice and met with much success, before moving to Darwin in 1993.

He won two Darwin premierships and broke the stranglehold on the jockeys' title held for many years by David Bates. One of his premierships came in 1999, the year he won the Darwin Cup on On The Beam. He won a second Darwin Cup aboard Saturday Sorcerer (2014), only to lose the race following a positive swab.

Apart from the Darwin Cup and his eight Palmerstons – 1983 He Could Be, 1987 Ima Realist, 1996 and 1997 Tally Ho, 2005 Cashkalani, 2011 Sense Of Sun, 2015 Moss'n Time and 2016 Handsome Tycoon – Dash has four Alice Springs Cups (Lord Chamberlain, Silver Shark, Mr Cheval and He's Here), five Pioneer Sprints, three Darwin Guineas, a Derby (Rocket Flight) and many other country Cups including Birdsville, Wyndham, Timber Creek and Kununurra.

The only feature Darwin race that has eluded him so far is the St Patrick's Day Cup.

Dash has in excess of 1200 career wins, more than 600 in Darwin and over 400 in Alice Springs. He has enjoyed much success with many trainers over the years, most notably Kerry Petrick, Ken Rogerson, Algy Trengrove and Stephen Brown to name but a few.

Dash rode for a time in Queensland, winning a race at Eagle Farm in 2007 before returning to his native South Australia. However, his love affair with Darwin remained and he has been back in the Top end for the past couple of years.

Dash is an ornament to the industry for his longevity, professionalism and success in the saddle, and after 40 years plying his trade, he is still going strong. Many congratulations Dash!
